

of topics, including their position on literature, characters, events and foods.

2Y)

In technologies, students will start to explore what is acceptable, responsible communication online and what entails